

When allergy season has you in tears, you've got Teladoc!

Untreated allergies can turn into a sinus infection or trigger an asthma attack, making allergy season nothing to sneeze at. Teladoc's U.S.-licensed doctors are available 24/7 to provide care for non-emergency conditions like the allergies, upper respiratory infections, asthma and more. When medically necessary, you can get a prescription.

“When I used Teladoc, the doctor responded quickly, understood the symptoms and was knowledgeable about allergies. - Melissa B”
